

Combination Pliers (also known as Lineman's pliers) are multi-purpose, professional-grade hand tools designed to combine gripping, twisting, bending, and wire-cutting functions into a single tool, they are highly valued in automobile, industrial maintenance, electrical, and general-purpose .

Key Specifications & Standards

- Material: Forged from high-grade Chrome Vanadium Steel or premium High Alloy Steel for superior strength and structural integrity.
- Heat Treatment: Features a fully hardened and tempered body with precision-machined, induction-hardened cutting edges to provide lasting sharpness and powerful cutting capabilities.
- Compliance Standards: Generally conforming to Indian Standards IS 3650-1981 for dimensional and performance safety constraints.
- Available Lengths: Commonly distributed in three standard sizes: 150 mm (6 inch), 175 mm (7 inch), and 210 mm (8 inch).